

V.C.S Columbus News February 8th, 2012

TeenPact parents plan on meeting at Chick-fil-A in Fairburn (Interstate 85 and Exit 61) to drop off your students. If you have additional questions, please email Sherry Camp. Parents please note that high school students will need to bring their TeenPact homework with them on the first day of class, February 6th.

Registration 2012-2013 forms are now available for our current students. Curriculum lists are here at each campus for your viewing also. We will open up registration to the public on March 12th and open house will be March 14th. We will have an open house flyer on campus and on the website and you are welcome to print and distribute the flyers to prospects for next year. We would love your help recruiting new sweet families to join us.

Our Literary Tea will be held on March 7th. Our Veritas families who plan on attending will need to RSVP by Feb.27th to lindseylech.veritas@gmail.com. This will help us as we may plan se we have enough tea and snacks for everyone. If you are one of our “Literary Tea Moms”, please plan on attending a quick meeting February 15th @9am.

Winter Break is February 20th -24th and your student will receive a modified assignment sheet for the break. The work given will be less than usual and is designed to be able to finish in just a couple of days.

We will have our next Pizza Lunch and Relax Dress Day February 29th.

Have a great week!
